Having any electronic device is of no use until or unless you have anybody or anything to guide you through. I got this Tap and I wasn't getting the Tap functionality and then this guide happened and I'm so glad that it happened lol.

This is my very first experience with any devices, I've heard so much about their devices and stuff. I bought this guide to have the best out of this device and I'm getting what was expected of this guide. Using my Tap like a pro now.
