Time To See The Doctor (First-Time Stories)

Synopsis

This charming new picture book series of heartwarming stories and illustrations will help prepare young children for new situations. The First-Time Stories series stars six-year-old Amy and her little brother, Ben, who "like all preschool children" have mixed feelings about first-time experiences. These gentle, warmly illustrated stories present a positive message about change and growing up. A must-have addition to every young family's library. Ben has an earache, but he's too scared to let the doctor check him. When Amy volunteers to be examined and gets a sticker for being brave, Ben decides that maybe the doctor isn't so scary, after all!

Customer Reviews

This is a colorful well illustrated 20 page paperback book approximately 8X8 inches in size. Ben gets sick and must go to Dr. instead of a planed trip to the zoo. At Dr. office Ben is uncoperative until sister Amy volunteers to go first. When Ben sees that no harm comes to Amy and she gets a cool sticker at the end, Ben decides to let the Dr. examine him. After a quick stop at the pharmacy with Dad, Mom tucks Ben into bed, gives him the medicine and promises to go to the zoo soon. My 3 yr, old grandson loves this book and we read it often. He isn't really afraid of Dr visits but took the book with him to read at the Dr. office recently when he had an ear infection.
