Customer Reviews

I have gotten into a cookbook frenzy recently. I've purchased about 20 cookbooks. Yes, I love looking at how recipes work, even though I only follow 80 percent of the time (I like to insert my own techniques or take away/substitute some ingredients). This still remains to be my favorite one out of 20. Yes, it's that good! The first few pages shares a brief history of both cultures. I am Cambodian-American. So I have high interest in Cambodian food, desserts, and drinks. I was amazed by how many authentic meals were in this book. I cannot praise this book enough. Every recipe comes with several beautiful pictures. This book is what you'd call a "life-saver," because the steps are pretty basic. If you're into Southeast-Asian cooking like me, I highly recommend this book! It is worth every dime.

Great book with much variety and good instructions.
